Summer is here...

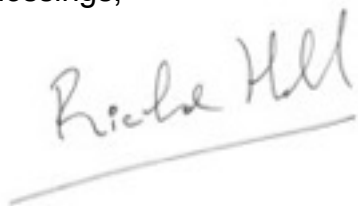

Welcome to summer. This plan covers that period when the island comes alive with visitors and the sun shines. I pray that we will all experience a change of rhythm during this quarter. The art exhibition "Awakening" will be nearing its climax and I trust that you will all have taken advantage of the opportunity to engage with it. The final day is June 17th.

You will notice a new abbreviation on the plan this quarter. OA is replaced with CP "Congregational Praise". This was discussed at the Local Preachers' and Worship Leaders' meeting where it was felt that whilst we know what OA means it can be mysterious, not to say off putting, for visitors who see Own Arrangements on a noticeboard and assume you are telling them to make their own arrangements i.e. go somewhere else.

This is not just about changing words though. CP more accurately reflects what we hope happens on these occasions in that this is an opportunity for each congregation to be creative in how it shares in worship. There are some really good examples of congregations around the island taking this as an opportunity to work together to do something different. Please let's drop the term OA from our publicity and notices and go instead for this more positive approach.

Whether the sun shines or not have a good summer.

Blessings,

Rev'd Richard Hall
