Summer is here...

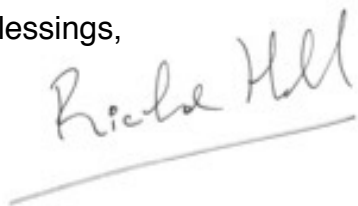

Welcome to a new church year. This is a time for new beginnings and we welcome Revd. Bryan Yardy as our new minister in the north along with his wife Sue and their son Joshua. We also welcome Sue in her role as a local preacher and two local preachers who have come to live in the south, John and Katherine Corkish.

It would be great to see as many people as possible at the Circuit welcome service for Bryan on September 1st 7.30pm at Kirk Michael. Also, this year we are re-introducing a service of re-affirmation for all our local preachers. This will be held on September 2nd 6.30pm at Trinity in Douglas. This is not just for our preachers but for all those who wish to show their appreciation of the valuable work that they do as we pray God's blessing on their ministry. Please do come along.

The week beginning September 16th marks the launch of various Alpha courses across the Circuit. These will be running in each of our five areas and if you haven't already found out about them please ask at your local church for details. Alpha is a brilliant way for Christians to refresh and for those who are exploring faith to discover answers to some of their questions.

This preaching plan represents a great deal of commitment by a large number of people. Please pray for all those who lead worship week by week and those who serve in other ways within the life of our church.

Blessings,

Rev'd Richard Hall

Standing Order 563 (v and vi)
It is the duty of Local Preacher (v) to fulfil all appointments given on the Circuit Plan; (vii) if unable to fulfil an appointment, to arrange for a suitable substitute, informing the Superintendent and a Church Steward of the local church concerned.
Churches are kindly requested to contact the appointed preacher a week before the service to discuss the current nature of the congregation and any particular worship requirements.
