Letter from our District Chair

Dear Friends,

We are now in the season of Lent and before this quarter is finished we will have celebrated Easter. There are many ways in which we mark the passing of time. For some this year seems to have put life on hold, whilst for others it will have flown by in a way that is hard to understand.

You may have had big plans for the year which have not been able to be realised and tasks you wanted to complete which have had to be left unfinished. This period of marking time may have been deeply frustrating or it may have come as a blessed relief. However you have experienced the last few months, one thing is sure. The events of 2020 and the early part of 2021 will have left their mark on you and your family and loved ones.

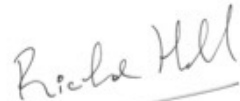

We sometimes forget that the first thirty years of Jesus life were, by all accounts, pretty uneventful when compared to the last three. No wonder then that he needed a time of solitary reflection to prepare for all that was ahead. For some the last twelve months have been a kind of extended Lent. This has been a time for enforced inactivity and a space to reflect on what really matters.

Could it be that God has been doing something in all of us, which will lead to great things in the future? Only time will tell whether we look back in years to come and recognise that this Covid experience changed us for the better or not.

No experience in life is ever wasted. All that we experience in our lives comes together to make us the people we are. Perhaps this Lent season should be a time for deliberately asking the question; so what next? How will I be changed by the events of the last twelve months.

This question is best asked in the presence of others and with prayerful reflection.

Blessings,

Rev Richard Hall
